MEDIATED AGREEMENT

The Clerk of said Court will note that this case is settled by stipulation as follows:

The Parties further agree (Check ONLY one box):

- The case is settled. This means the parties have settled their suit according to the terms of the agreement above, neither of the parties has a further obligation to the other in this matter, and the suit cannot be refiled or reopened later. The case will be dismissed and cannot be reopened if your agreement is breached once the agreement is received by the Court and signed by a Judge. Instead, you must file suit on your mediated agreement. Do not check this box if you have accepted a form of payment that you are waiting to clear a financial institution, or some other thing must be done to satisfy and complete the agreement.

- There are things that need to be met in the future, such as additional payments or check clearance. The case is-continued for enforcement pending all parties meeting the provisions of the above agreement. If any party fails to comply with the agreement, the opposing party may file a motion with the court, with 10 days' notice to the other party, to enforce the agreement or otherwise remedy the failure to comply. Check this box if you are expecting things to be done in the future.

SO ORDERED this ____ day of _____, 20____
